

ALEXANDRIA.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 11, 1866.

The Washington Star, speaking of what is called the "Civil Rights Bill," says:—"By this bill the United States district courts are made the masters of the State judiciary. Contracts under State laws are to be set aside by Federal officers. There is an absolute Federal power over marriages, minors and idiots—a central power, which, with a bad President, would make every intelligent and patriotic freeman in a State tremble for his liberties and the freedom of his country. The worst features of the long-deterred Fugitive Slave Law of 1850 are in this bill, and a conflict between the National and State Governments in attempting its execution is almost inevitable. In such event the question of its constitutionality will doubtless go before the Supreme Court. Fortunately with the President's known views, as promulgated in his veto message, we have nothing to fear in the meantime from an arbitrary exercise of the power delegated to him."

In view of recent events, and of the action of the President, the Stanton Spectator well says, "it becomes the Press of the South, now more than heretofore, to exercise wisdom and prudence. They should be independent, as it was their duty to be before, but they should temper independence with discretion, and zeal with moderation. In the language of the Lynchburg Daily News, the utterances of the Southern Press "will be watched by the Radicals of the North with the most jealous care, and the pages of our journals scanned with the most rigid scrutiny. The President is now, and has for some time been, fighting our battles for us; let us then strengthen his hands by the exhibition of prudence, forbearance and wisdom, and let our journals be guided in their course, rather by the aspirations of the patriot, than the intolerant passions of the partizan."

The Southern Relief Fair in Baltimore will finally close to-morrow evening, it being impossible to retain the hall longer, in consequence of prior arrangements. It is very evident, from the sales so far made and donations received, that the exhibition will yield a sum exceeding $100,000. A large number of goods will necessarily remain unsold, and these goods are not designed to be sold by auction, nor to be sacrificed in any manner. The executive committee were to hold a meeting at the hall, at 12½ o'clock to-day, to take into consideration the matter of their removal and final disposition. Some will doubtless be disposed of by private sale, some useful articles will be sent to the South, whilst others may, from time to time, be sent to different State fairs.

Speaker Colfax was serenaded on Monday night at his residence, by citizens of Indiana, who had already paid a like compliment to Senator Lane, of that State. "Mr. Colfax, at some length, congratulating the nation upon its disenthralment from slavery, and rejoicing in the action of Congress, which had given 'to all the protection of equal laws.' He spoke in eulogistic terms of the glory of the party under whose auspices these results had been achieved."

A destructive fire was raging in the woods near Catlett's Station on Thursday night last, supposed to have originated from a spark from a passing locomotive. A good deal of timber and fencing was destroyed, the property of Richard Stone and others. Mr. S. estimates his loss at $3,000.

At the session of the New York East Conference of the M. E. Church in Brooklyn, on Thursday, a resolution was adopted expressive of brotherly feeling and love towards the members of the Conference of the Church South, now assembled in New Orleans.

At a Firemen's celebration in Mobile, after President Johnson had been toasted "as a fearless patriot," the health of Jefferson Davis was proposed and the toast drunk. The proposer said he meant no treason.

It is believed that all the United States colored troops will be discharged the service before the first of next month.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.—The Senate, yesterday, passed the bill to pay the State of Pennsylvania the sum of $800,000 for monies expended in calling out the militia during the late war; also the bill granting certain lands to Michigan to aid in constructing a ship canal from Lake Superior to Lac la Poudre, and the bill granting lands to aid in the construction of the Southern Minnesota railroad.

In the House, the vote rejecting the bankrupt bill was reconsidered, but it was again rejected. A new bill, however, having the same object in view, was introduced. Among the bills passed were the following: Providing for the coinage of new five-cent pieces; allowing Rear Admiral Paulding and Commodore Radford to accept medals from the King of Italy; to authorize the "Soldier's Individual Memorial" to pass through the mails at the rate provided for printed matter; and tendering the thanks of Congress to Major Gen. Hancock for gallant services.

HORSE THIEVING has been reduced to a science in this part of Virginia. It behooves every man to bend his energies to the detection of the thieves. Not a horse stolen the last three or four months has been recovered. On Wednesday night Messrs. Akeley & Baldwin, of Wisconsin, who have just bought a farm near Spotsylvania Court-house, and who had some suspected plying a crop, lost two valuable horses. The thieves crossed them at United States Ford, on the Rappahannock, and doubtless took them North.—Fredericksburg Her.

A case of cholera is reported in Richmond.

Meeting of the Stockholders of the Manassas Gap Railroad Company. Pursuant to an order from the Board of Public Works, the Stockholders of the Manassas Gap Railroad Company, met at the Court House, in this city, to-day at noon. On motion of F. L. Smith, T. B. Robertson was chosen Chairman, and Edgar Snowden Jr., and Daniel Morgan, Secretaries. T. A. Brevin, of Alexandria, and Harvey Effinger and J. H. Wartman, of Rockingham, were chosen a committee on proxies, when the meeting took a recess until 3 o'clock, to meet at the Mansion House.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

The U. S. bonded warehouse in Greenwich street, in New York, was robbed on Saturday night of silks to the value of $10,000 belonging to A. T. Stewart. One of the clerks of the Bank of America was robbed yesterday of over five thousand dollars in gold certificates at the entrance of the Sub-Treasury. The three unknown ruffians attempted to rob the book-keeper of Roach & Co., New York, in Rivington street, of one thousand two hundred dollars.

All the negro troops in Kentucky are to be disbanded forthwith. The military districts in Alabama have also been broken up and the troops restricted to certain post garrisons. We are told, moreover, that it is not true, as previously reported, that official orders have been sent to various commanders notifying them that martial law still exists in the Southern States.

A public meeting was held at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church in New York, on Monday evening last, at which Chief Justice Chase presided. In the course of his remarks, Chief Justice Chase alluded to the passage of the Civil Rights bill, and claimed that the next step would be to give the ballot to the emancipated slaves.

There is a new revolution going on in China. A number of disloyal Celestials are endeavoring to subvert the Government. They do not seem to complain of any special grievances, but they want power. They desire to regulate the affairs of the Empire after their own fashion. Peking is in danger.

There has been considerable excitement in fashionable circles in Baltimore for some time, relative to insulting and anonymous letters received by many persons. A correspondence on the subject between Mr. Bernol the British consul and J. H. Keene, of Baltimore has been published.

Head Centre Stephens is expected to arrive at New York by the Havre steamer, which is due there to-day. Great preparations are making by the O'Mahoney wing of the Fenians, for his reception.

Michael Murphy, President of the Hibernian Society, together with five other persons, were arrested at Cornhill, Canada, yesterday, on suspicion of being connected with Fenian movements.

Mr. Monroe, who was recently elected Mayor of New Orleans, has not been allowed by General Canby to assume office.

Heavy fires are reported at Edinburg, Indiana; Ashland, Pennsylvania; and Decherd, Alabama.

LATE FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Belgian, from Liverpool, on the 29th ult., via Londonderry on the 30th ult., has arrived.

The London Times of the 30th says there is too much reason to fear that the peace of Europe is to be broken by one of the least just and least necessary wars of modern times. The Times heartily trusts England may keep aloof.

Half-a-dozen war vessels are preparing for sea at Plymouth, and are reported to go to the St. Lawrence.

The language of the Prussian press, by evident dictation of the government, is warlike, and great preparations are being made throughout the kingdom. The Austrian Government was also taking measures in anticipation of the coming struggle.

Austria, it is said, has determined to put an end to the provisional state of affairs in the duchies, and, if necessary, will propose that the question be referred to a European Congress.

The Independent Barge of the 29th ult. has news that the King of Prussia consents to certain military arrangements, which, though only preliminary, indicate that war is almost inevitable.

The rate of discount of the Bank of England remains at six per cent.

DIED.

Last night, at half-past twelve o'clock, Rose, aged daughter of John and Ellen Gallion, four years and six months. Her funeral will take place from the residence of her mother, No. 35, South Royal street, at half-past four o'clock to-morrow evening. The friends of the family are invited to attend. She has gone, we never shall see her more. In her childish sports, as oft before; No more shall look in her sparkling eye; No more shall list to her sweet lisp; The soul has gone to rest at last. Perchance to dwell on some distant star; Of all she was, naught remaineth yet. But the dust of our little household pet. She has gone from earth with its pain and care; She's safe in a realm that is bright and fair; And it's cheering to us who long have been clear; But yet it's hard to give her up. And the hand is slow to take the cup, And hearts are bleeding, and eyes are wet. For the little playful household pet.
